AIADMK says won't reinduct Sasikala

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
KRISHNAGIRI, MAY 31

VK Sasikala

THE AIADMK Monday hit out at VK Sasikala, saying she will not be taken back into the party, a day after she hinted at a revival of attempts to regain control.

Asking her to keep away from the party, senior party leader K P Munusamy asserted that under no circumstances could Sasikala enter AIADMK.

There is no chance for her to join the party again and the cadres are clear about not allowing her to get back, Munusamy, party deputy coordinator, told reporters at Veppanahalli near here.

The AIADMK has hit back after Sasikala's conversations with her loyalists over the phone surfaced Sunday in which she indicated efforts to get back control of the party.

Without mentioning the name of AIADMK or its top two leaders O Panneerselvam or K Palaniswami, she had spoken about differences between them and infighting, prompting her to "act to safeguard the party interests". Munusamy said Sasikala is not with the AIADMK and she has no links whatsoever to the party. To create confusion in the party that is being run well, misinformation was being spread by projecting Sasikala, he alleged.

The aim is only to divert cadres and functionaries and create confusion, he said.
